

ARTICLE FORTY: THE GET (JEWISH DIVORCE)

The parties acknowledge that the Husband has already provided the Wife with a GET (Jewish Divorce). The Husband specifically affirms that the aforesaid GET was given to the Wife unconditionally, and that there are no Jewish Legal issues with such GET to the best of his knowledge.

ARTICLE FORTY-ONE: DRL SEC. 255 STATEMENTS

The parties make the following statements, as required by Domestic Relations Law Section 255.

I, Esther Weiss, fully understand that upon the signing of this agreement I may no longer be allowed to receive health coverage under my former spouse's health insurance plan. I may be entitled to purchase health insurance on my own through a COBRA option, if available, otherwise I may be required to secure my own health insurance.
