

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

JACOB TEITELBAUM,
Plaintiff,

-against-

JUDA KATZ et al.,
Defendants.

ORDER

12 CV 2858 (VB)

Briccetti, J.:

Plaintiff, proceeding pro se, brings this civil rights action asserting that defendants have conspired to remove his children in retaliation for his participation in a religious campaign. The Court has received a letter from plaintiff stating that he has been “threatened, intimidated and harassed in an attempt to force [him] to withdraw [his] complaint.” Plaintiff contends he fears for his safety.

The Court directs plaintiff to appear for a conference regarding these allegations on July 2, 2012, at 10:00 a.m., in Courtroom 620 at the United States Courthouse, 300 Quarropas Street, White Plains, New York 10601. Although it appears from the docket that the U.S. Marshal’s Service has not yet executed service of the Summons and Complaint on defendants, the Court further directs the County Attorney for the County of Orange, who is the attorney for defendant Child Protective Services of Orange County, to appear at the July 2, 2012 conference, and to be prepared to discuss the status of plaintiff’s CPS case.

The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this Order to the County Attorney for the County of Orange at the following address: County Attorney, County of Orange, 15 Matthews Street, Suite 305, Goshen, NY 10924.

Dated: June 19, 2012
White Plains, NY
